"The Dazzler," a farce-comedy in which, a couple of seasons ago, Miss Lydia Thompson starred, was revived last night at the Fourteenth Street Theaire, with Miss Anna Boyd in the leading role, it went very well indeed, and swill undoubtedly prosper. Joseph Ott, a remarkably clever comedian; F. T. Ward, J. P. Curran, A. Hart, M. Haynes, Max Miller, Joseph Harrington, it. E. Reed, W. H. May, Jesse Hatcher, Annie Wilmuth Curran and a number of others were in the cast.

BIJOC THEATRE.

Other attractions.

WORTH'S MUSEUM.

There was plenty to be seen at Worth's Museum yesterday, the list of sights being headed by the million-dollar gold exhibit, which has already remained longer at his house than the management expected it would do Court Orloft, the transparent man, was there, and so were Wild Burt and Little Sure Shot, George A. Bryant, a German dialect comedian; the Tooley brothers, Morton and Lester, and Miss Rosa Bacon, a song and dence artists.

NEW PARK THEATRE.

BIJOU THEATRE.

"Hoss and Hoss," a very roaring farce-comedy, first seen in this city at the New Park Theatre, began an engagement last night at the Bijou. The eroem age Judge Hoss and Charlie loss, and that is all you need bother purself about as far as the plot goes. "Illie Collier, the star, is a very clever foung person, and worked very hard to make "Hoss and Hoss" move along. Helone Collier, Louise Allen, Mark Sulligan and Ignacio Martinetti were in the Cast.

WINDSOR THEATRE.

"The Outsider" was the play at the Windsor Theatre last night. It was reviewed not very long ago in these columns, and there is nothing much to add to what was then said. The specialties have been brightened up. William Muldoon, the wrestler, appeared, and there were people in the house who appeared to appreciate his efforts. The five acrobatic Rosarios, and the "colored pickaninny wonder" did very well. The ace scene was very picturesque.

"May jurneen" drew a large audience the Grand Opera-House.

"May jurneen" drew a large audience the Grand Opera-House.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

"May urneen" drew a large audience the Grand Opera-House last night, r the play is an excellent one. There as a very big theatre party present, if the performance appeared to give ilimited satisfaction. Chauncey Oltt sang the leading role very well insed, and the company which was a rod one. Included Daniel Gilfether, Iward Holland, Little Dot Clarendon, ank Peters, Florence Foster, Cecile ish and others.

HARLEM OPERA-HOUSE.

HARLEM OPERA-HOUSE. neog" is a genuinely amusing farce, and it was capitally done last night at nd it was capitally done last night at dammerstein's Hurlem Opera-House, by Charles Dickson and his competent company. Mr. Dickson, who is the star, is not ostentatiously stellar, but works with his associates in perfect harmony. His performance is quite as good as it was last season; he shows no signs of wear and tear, "Incog" was preceded by a curtain raiser entitled "The Man About Town."

H. R. JACOBS' THEATRE. H. R. JACOBS' THEATRE.

Charles H. Hoyt's athletic farce, "A Hole in the Ground," was played last night at H. R. Jacobs' Theatre, and caused much laughter. Frank Lawton appeared as the station agent; Charles Cowles, as the Stranger; Barry Maxwell, as the tramp; Virginia Earle, as the lunch girl, and Margeurite May as the telegraph girl. "A Hole in the Ground' seemed to be quite up to date. One of the advantages of these farces is that they can be constantly renovated.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE. PEOPLE'S THEATRE.

"Sport McAllister; One of the Four Hundred," was the play at the People's Theatre last night, with "Bobby" Gaylor as the star. This play is not one that calls for analytical attention; it is simply a roaring farce, without very much rhyme or reason. The audience laughed very heartily at Mr. Gaylor's clever work, and Mr. Gaylor himself

Guibal and Graville, with their mystifying mind-reading entertainment; little Walter Leon, the six-year-old orator; Lottle Mortimer, who is addicted to the serpentine dance habit—a habit that is becoming pernicious; the Rogers sisters, who play the mandolin and sing; Ando and Omne, the Japanese jugglers and equilibrists; the four Barrison sisters, and Danko Gabor's gypsy band, were the attractions at the Eden Musee yesterday.

COLUMBUS THEATRE. "Glen-da Lough," the Irish drams that was first seen in New York at the Four-teenth Street Theatre, began a week's engagement last night at Hammerstein's Columbus Theatre in Harlem. J. K. Murray was the star and hero, and he had a role that gave him all the sympathy of the audience. There is a villain and a heroine in "Glen-da-Lough," and all the complications that modern audiences seem to dote upon. Mr. Murray song a number of songs, with good effect.

TONY PASTORS.

Paqueretts did some exceedingly clever work at Tony Pastor's Theatre last night the entertainment was a most enjoyable one; in fact, there was not a dull feature in the programme. Those who appeared were J. W. Kelly, Vestn Victoria, Tony Pastor, Ed and Josie Evans, O'Brien and Redding, Allen and West, Miss Julia Kelly, Messrs, Burk, George W. Woods, G. Willis and E. Brown in "The Outpost;" Miss Addie Smith Leonzo, and William and Ida Morello, Vesta Victoria was presented with a real "bow-wow."

NIBLO'S GARDEN.

"A man thrown head-first into mam-PROCTOR'S THEATRE.

"A man thrown head-first into mammoth iron cylinders that crunch a thousand pounds of coal a minute." That was the attraction at Niblo's Garden last night. Around the episode was woven the play known as "The Diamond Breaker," which is supposed to deal with life in the coal-mining districts, The piece seemed to please the patrons of this house, who applauded fiercely and frequently. The cast was headed by Miss Etelka Wardell, a capable actress.

FOURTEENTH STREET THEATRE.

"The Dayler" a farce-comedy in

Sam Devere's company occupied the stage of the New Park Theatre last night, and gave a very varied performance. Among those who were seen were See Hassan Ben All's Moorish troupe, the Coulson sisters, Leonard and Morsn, the Wood Travellic trio, McBride and Walten, Rowe and Brannor, the musical Highleys, who are well-worth hearing; C. W. Littlefield, Harry La Rose, the Columbia Four and Sam Devere.
